

Old School—the Musical by Frances Steinberg

Nate mysteriously finds himself in the magical location of Old School. Because no one knows why he's there or how he can be returned home safely, Nate is enrolled.

Entranced by the location, the talents of the other students, and the amazing magical skills of the instructors, Nate enjoys his time at the school, but always feels a bit out of place.

When he finally gets the explanation as to why he arrived in Old School, Nate must make a serious choice between staying there or going home.
